

Are You Planning to Say "I Do" in Paradise?

More and more couples are opting to have a destination wedding because they want to avoid the stress of planning or the expense of a traditional wedding.

Don't let worries get in the way of enjoying your special day! Consider these 6 tips when planning your destination wedding to ease your stress and allow you to focus on making memories with the one you love!

Be the Early Bird

Some resorts only schedule one wedding ceremony per day, with popular date choices filling up fast. Booking early also allows your wedding party to have the best availability when it comes to choosing flights and accommodations.

Send out save-the-date announcements as soon as you can to give your guests time to save and schedule time off work.

Schedule a Sneak Peak - I can help you take advantage of a wedding preview trip to give you true peace of mind.

Set a Realistic Timeline - Most wedding guides offer a suggested plan for your wedding size.

Forget About Pleasing People - When it comes to planning your wedding, it's nearly impossible to make everyone happy. Focus on what matters most to you and your partner. After all, this is your special day that you'll remember for a lifetime.

Save Yourself a Day - Many destination wedding couples celebrate their ceremony and honeymoon all in one place.

Always trust a Professional – Consulting a travel agent is one of the top ways to avoid stress. Expert planning and coordination of your special day!
